

Sunday Bay Sauvignon Blanc

Marlborough • New Zealand

From the New World capital of Sauvignon Blanc, this is a brilliantly fresh, tropical fruit scented white from a cellar that scooped top Sauvignon prize at a recent international show. Chill a bottle and enjoy its grassy aromas and exuberant fruit.

*Delicious, great taste, rich and full of character.
Best served very well chilled*

Online Review for 2014

Stunning new vintage of this New Zealand Sauvignon from a winery that recently scooped 'Best International Sauvignon' at the world's largest show. Recent vintages have garnered enormous praise and enthusiasm – "the most scrumdolious SB to pass our lips" and so on. The good news is that after a hot, dry spring and summer, the 2015 is even better! Once again, we got such a great deal that we can't reveal the name of the cellar – it would upset too many of their regular customers. A small price to pay really for such an appetising, bobby dazzler of a Marlborough Sauvignon.

Exuberant pink grapefruit and grassy nettle character with a bright citrus zip, this has all the usual Marlborough pizzazz and more. Great solo or with spicy seafood.

WINEFILE

STYLE	Light and fruity, dry and rounded
GRAPE	Sauvignon Blanc 100%
COLOUR	Very pale straw green
AROMA	Tropical fruits. Pink grapefruit and herbaceous hints
TASTE	Lively tropical fruit, nettle freshness and hints of passion fruit
DRINK BY	End 2016
ALCOHOL	13%